HIGH COURT.

It is ordered, that the Money Rules now in force, and the Rules of the 22nd of December 1847, and Rules 58 and 59 of the Rules of the 7th of February 1866, be and the same are hereby repealed. And it is ordered that the following Rules be read and passed as the Rules and Orders of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal to take effect from the 1st day of December 1875:—

MONEY RULES.

[ACCOUNTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.]

1. All sums of money and securities for money now in deposit in the Bank of Bengal in account with the Accountant General of the Court, as also in account with the Registrar of the Court in its Original Jurisdiction; [not being deposits on account of sales by that officer] shall be transferred to the Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India, and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal, with the privacy of the Accountant General of the Court, to the credit of the several causes or matters to the credit of which they respectively now stand.

2. Except as provided in Rules 21 and 22, all sums of money, or securities for money, ordered to be paid or delivered into Court on account of any cause or matter, shall be paid, or endorsed and delivered, to the Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as shall for the time being have the custody of the funds of suitors, hereinafter mentioned as "such officer or officers as aforesaid"], and shall be entered in books to be kept for that purpose by the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid] in account with the Accountant General of the Court: and books containing full and minute statements of the accounts in each cause or matter shall be kept and carried on by the Accountant General of the Court at his office.

And by the Accountant General.

3. Upon all securities for money brought into Court on account of any cause or matter, or purchased with money in Court on account of any cause or matter, the name of such cause or matter shall be endorsed.

4. Except as provided in Rules 21 and 22, the Accountant General of the Court shall not meddle with the actual receipt of any money, or securities for money, ordered to be paid or delivered into Court on account of any cause or matter, but shall only keep such accounts as aforesaid.

5. The Accountant General of the Court shall be responsible for any loss that may be incurred by his wrongful or neglectful keeping of the accounts, or by any variance in his certificates, cheques, or drafts from the decrees or orders in respect of which they are given, or by his delivering such certificates, cheques, or drafts to other than the proper persons, or for any other thing which by him may be done or ordered contrary to the intent and meaning of any decree or order of the Court, of which he shall have had notice. Save as aforesaid, the Accountant General of the Court shall not be responsible for any money, or securities for money, not actually received by him.

6. Whenever the Accountant General of the Court shall entertain doubts as to the true intent and meaning of any decree or order, under which he shall be called upon to act in pursuance of these rules, it shall be lawful for him, before issuing a certificate, or cheque, or draft to any person or persons, to require such person or persons to apply to the Court, or the sitting Judge in Chambers, for the purpose of obtaining directions respecting the same.

7. No person shall be admitted into the Office of the Accountant General of the Court until he shall have entered into a bond, with sufficient sureties, to the Chief Justice, in the penalty of Rs. 50,000, conditioned for the due execution of his office.

8. The Accountant General of the High Court shall also be the Accountant General of the Insolvent Court.

9. Unless otherwise ordered, whenever any cash in deposit in the Bank of Bengal [or with such officer or officers as aforesaid] on account of any cause or matter shall exceed Rs. 600 over and above what may be required for periodical or other payments, the Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India, and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid], shall, under the directions and with the privity of the Accountant General of the Court, invest the same in the purchase of loan acknowledgments, or promissory notes of the Government of India.

10. The Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India, and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid] upon investing any money in the purchase of loan acknowledgments, or promissory notes of the Government of India, on account of any cause or matter, shall cause the same to be entered in the books kept by the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid] in account with the Accountant General of the Court, to the credit of such cause or matter, and shall specify the numbers, dates, and nominal value of such securities.

11. The Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid] shall receive all interest accruing upon the securities for money in deposit in the Bank of Bengal [or with such officer or officers as aforesaid] on account of each and every cause or matter, and, after deducting therefrom the commission of the Accountant General of the Court, shall enter the same in the account of such cause or matter.

12. In respect of the funds of suitors, the Bank of Bengal's percentage. Bank of Bengal shall be entitled to charge fees on the following scale:—

- (1). On buying and selling securities  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent.
- (2). On drawing and paying interest  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent.
- (3). On delivery of securities  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent.
- (4). On transfer made under order of Court 8 annas per note, on notes of less than Rs. 1,000, and Re. 1 per note on all other notes.
- (5). On transfer to new loan, consequent on discharge of loan, Re. 1 per 1,000.

13. Except as provided in Rules 21 and 22, when a decree or an order is made for the payment or delivery of money, or securities for money into Court.

A copy of decree or order to be countersigned by a Judge. Court, a copy thereof, countersigned by a Judge of the Court, shall be obtained from the Registrar's Office, and carried to the Accountant General of the Court,

And produced to the Accountant General by the person or persons by whom such payment or delivery into Court is to be made. The Accountant General, on such copy being produced to him, shall enter the same in his books, and shall mark "intratur" at the foot of such copy, and subscribe his name thereto, and shall, by a certificate or draft under his hand, specify the date of the decree or order, and the particulars of the money or securities for money to be paid or delivered thereunder, and the name of the cause or matter to the account of which the same is to be placed. He shall then deliver such certificate or draft, with the copy of the decree or order, to the person or persons aforesaid, who shall take the same, together with the money or securities for money specified in such certificate or draft, to the Bank of Bengal, [or such officer or officers as aforesaid]. The Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid], upon examining such certificate or draft, and the copy of the decree or order, and receiving the said money, or securities for money, shall deliver a receipt for the same in duplicate, signed with his hand, specifying the particulars of the money, or securities for money, so received, to the person or persons aforesaid, who shall carry one of such receipts to the Accountant General of the Court, and that officer shall make an entry in his books and file the same in his office as of record.

Bank's receipt to be filed with the Accountant General.

14. Except as provided in Rules 22 and 23, when a decree or an order is made for the payment or delivery of money, or securities for money, out of Court, a copy thereof, countersigned by a Judge of the Court, shall be obtained from the Registrar's Office, and carried to the Accountant General of the Court, by the person or persons to whom such payment or delivery is to be made.

A copy of decree or order to be countersigned by a Judge.

The Accountant General, on such copy being produced to him, shall enter the same in his books, and mark "intratur" at the foot of such copy, and subscribe his name thereto, and shall, by a certificate or draft under his hand, specify the date of the decree or order, and the particulars of the money, or securities for money, to be paid or delivered out thereunder, and the name of the cause or matter in which the decree or order has been made, and enter such certificate or draft in his books. He shall then, having satisfied himself as to the identity of the person or persons to whom payment or delivery under the decree or order is to be made, and upon a proper receipt being given to him, deliver his certificate or draft, with the copy of the decree or order, to such person or persons, who shall take the same to the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid], and shall, upon receiving the money or securities for money specified in such certificate or draft, give a receipt for the same to the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid], which decree or order, certificate or draft and receipt, shall be a sufficient warrant and authority to the Bank of Bengal for paying or delivering the money, or securities for money, specified in such certificate or draft, as also for writing off the same from the account kept by him with the Accountant General of the Court.

And with his certificate or draft delivered to the Bank of Bengal.

These, with a receipt for the amount, to form sufficient authority for payment.

15. When periodical payments are directed to be made out of any fund in Court, the procedure prescribed by the last preceding rule shall be followed with respect to the first of such payments. Every payment after the first shall be made as follows:—Upon the application of the person or persons entitled to such payment, the Accountant General of the Court shall issue a cheque, or draft, for the amount upon the Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India, and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid] in favor of such person or persons; and the Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Bengal [or such officer or officers as aforesaid] in every such case, shall take and keep the cheque or draft, and pay the amount specified therein without requiring the production of any further copy of the decree or order, under which such payment is to be made, or any other document.

being made, the Accountant General of the Court shall notify the same to the Accountant General of Bengal.

21. When fines are imposed by the Court, the same shall be paid to the Accountant General of the Court, and shall by him be paid into the Government account at the Bank of Bengal, less awards to prosecutors. The Accountant General of the Court shall, at the commencement of every quarter, deliver to the Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India, an account of the fines realized and compensation to prosecutors awarded out of them.

22. Save as provided in the last preceding rule, all sums of money, or securities for money, to be paid or delivered into Court in its Original Criminal Jurisdiction, shall be paid or delivered by the person or persons by whom such payment or delivery is to be made direct into the Bank of Bengal, to the account of the Accountant General of the Court by his description of office, in addition to his name, such securities for money being first endorsed by the person or persons aforesaid to the Accountant General of the Court by his description of office, in addition to his name.

23. When an order is made for the payment out of any money deposited in Court under the last preceding rule, such payment shall be made by means of a cheque or draft in writing drawn by the Accountant General of the Court in favor of the person or persons to whom such payment is to be made. Such certificate or draft shall be signed by the Accountant General in his own name, coupled with his official description.

24. When an order is made for the delivery out of any securities for money deposited in Court under Rule 22, the Accountant General of the Court shall, by means of a certificate, take out such securities from the Bank of Bengal, and shall endorse and deliver the same to the person or persons to whom such delivery is to be made.

25. The Accountant General of the Court shall, at the commencement of every quarter, deliver to the Chief Justice an account of all deposits made in the Court's Original Criminal Jurisdiction, and the Chief Justice shall make such order as to the investment of the uninvested deposits or otherwise, as to him shall seem fit.

26. When payment or delivery of any money or securities for money is directed to persons, as partners, or suing or sued as such, the Accountant General's certificate, or cheque, or draft for the same, may be issued to any such partners.

27. When payment or delivery of any money, or securities for money, is directed to be made out of Court to the legal personal representatives of any person, the Accountant General's certificate, or cheque, or draft for the same, or any portion thereof for the time being remaining unpaid or undelivered, may upon proof to the Accountant General of the death of any such legal personal representatives, whether before, on, or after the day of the date of the decree or order, be issued to the survivor or survivors of them.

28. When payment or delivery of any money, or securities for money, is directed to be made out of Court to any person named in the decree or order, or, his legal personal representatives, the same or any portion thereof for the time being remaining unpaid or undelivered, may, upon proof to the Accountant General of the death of such person, whether before, on, or after the day of the date of the decree or order, be issued to such legal representatives or the survivors or survivor of them.

29. Unless otherwise ordered, payment or delivery of money, or securities for money, under either of the two last preceding rules, shall not be made to a personal representative constituted under a foreign grant of probate or letters of administration, or to an Administrator ad litem.

30. When any person to whom payment or delivery of any money, or securities for money, is directed to be made out of Court, by a power-of-attorney, authorizes such payment or delivery to be made to some other person or persons, and such power is produced to the Accountant General of the Court, that officer shall satisfy himself as to the sufficiency of the power, and as to whether it has been duly stamped and executed. If satisfied that it is in all respects proper to be acted upon, he shall cause an entry thereof to be made in his books, and mark "entered" at the foot or on the back thereof, and authenticate the same with his initials. He shall then deliver the same, together with his certificate, or draft, or cheque, to the person named therein, having first satisfied himself as to his identity.

31. No money, or securities for money, in deposit in the Bank of Bengal to the credit of the Official Assignee of the Insolvent Court, shall be paid or delivered out, except the cheque or order for such payment or delivery be countersigned by the Accountant General of the Court, describing himself as such.

32. Any person having an interest, may, as of course, upon payment of the established fees, obtain from the Accountant General of the Court a certificate of the state of any account in his books or of the non-compliance with any decree or order, directing the payment or delivery into Court of money, or securities for money, or a copy of any account in the books of the office relating to the funds in any cause or matter.

33. All the books of the Accountant General of the Court, as well as those in which orders or certificates are entered, as those in which the accounts are kept, shall, at all times during office hours, be open to the inspection of suitors or their attorneys upon payment of the established fees.

34. Every officer of the High Court or, Insolvent Court, required to give security for the due performance of his duties, or for any money, or securities for money, in any way in his official possession, shall, at the commencement of every quarter, report to the Chief Justice whether his sureties are living, and, if living, where they are, and whether to his belief they are solvent.

35. When any surety or sureties for any such officer, as aforesaid, shall die, or become insolvent, the officer for whom he or they was or is or were or are surety or sureties, shall immediately notify the same in writing to the Chief Justice, who shall thereupon make such order for the substitution of a new surety, or new sureties, as to him shall seem fit.

[ REGISTRAR'S OFFICE. ]

36. When upon a sale by or with the approval of the Registrar, a deposit is required to be made by the purchaser, the same shall be made with the Registrar.

37. If the amount to be deposited shall consist partly or wholly of Government securities, such securities shall be endorsed by the person making the deposit to the Registrar by his description of office, in addition to his name, in the cause or matter in which the sale shall have been made.

38. The Registrar shall, as soon as possible, after the receipt by him of any money, or securities for money, under the last preceding rule, deposit the same in the Bank of Bengal, in an account to be opened by him in his name and description of office, and entitled in the cause or matter in which such money, or securities for money, shall be received by him as aforesaid.

39. When any other deposit is required to be made with the Registrar, on account of any cause or matter, the money, or securities for money, so to be deposited, shall be paid or delivered by the person or persons making the deposit direct into the Bank of Bengal, to the account of the Registrar of the High Court, Original Jurisdiction, by his description of office, in addition to his name; such securities for money being first endorsed by the person or persons aforesaid to the Registrar by his description of office, in addition to his name.

40. When an order is made for the payment out of money deposited with the Registrar, as aforesaid, such payment shall be made by means of a cheque in writing drawn by the Registrar in favor of the person or persons to whom such payment is to be made. Such cheque shall be signed by the Registrar in his own name, coupled with his official description.

41. When an order is made for the delivery out of any securities for money deposited with the Registrar, as aforesaid, that officer shall, by means of a certificate, take out such securities from the Bank of Bengal, and shall endorse and deliver the same to the person or persons to whom such delivery is to be made.

42. Unless for special reasons otherwise ordered, no deposits shall be made with the Registrar other than deposits on account of any sale by that officer, or as security for costs.

43. When a purchaser at a sale by the Registrar shall obtain an order for the payment of balance of purchase-money to include order for the payment into Court of the balance of his purchase-money, the order shall be drawn up with a direction for the transfer by the Registrar of the amount deposited with him on account of the purchase-money, less his commission [unless the same shall have been already paid by means of High Court stamps], to the Comptroller General of Accounts for the time being of the Government of India and the Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Bank of Bengal with the privity of the Accountant General of this Court, to the credit of the cause or matter to the credit of which the balance of the purchase-money is to be paid.

44. The Registrar's commission, when retained as aforesaid, shall be transferred by him into the Government account at the Bank of Bengal, and such transfer shall be notified by him to the Accountant General of the Government of Bengal.

45. The Registrar shall, at the commencement of every quarter, deliver to the Chief Justice an account of every deposit made with him as aforesaid, and the Chief Justice shall make such order as to the investment of uninvested deposits, or otherwise as to him shall seem fit.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT, N. W. P.*NOTIFICATION.MISCELLANEOUS.The 21st August 1875.

No. 1707 A.—The following tea plantations in Kumaun, the property of Government, will be offered for sale by public auction at the Senior Assistant Commissioner's Office, Almora, on Wednesday, the 1st of December, 1875, at noon :—

Hawalbagh.—Forty-six miles from the plains by bridle-road, and six from Almora. Area, about one hundred acres, after excluding the house known as Mr. Traill's, with its compound, which will not be sold : said house and ground are in an outlying corner of the estate, and are to be set apart for travellers. Separated from the plantation by the Kosi river (suspension bridge) is a pine forest of one hundred and two acres belonging to the estate, but in which neighbouring villages have the right to graze their cattle. The garden, having latterly been used as a nursery for fruit trees, the whole of the area is not under tea. There are on the estate two large slated houses (exclusive of Traill's house), a slated factory, two slated godowns, a slated barrack for tea-makers, and numerous slated out-offices. The height of the houses above sea-level is 4,000 feet, and the lands are not much higher or lower. Upset price Rs. 25,000.

Communications.—A good bridle-road, 8 to 10 feet wide and bridged, runs to (1) Haldwani, (2) Kaladungi (via Naini Tal), and (3) Ramnagar (via Khyrna). From Haldwani to Bareilly Railway Station, 60 miles, over a pukka cart-road; from Kaladungi to Moradabad Railway Station, 48 miles, on partly pukka road; and from Ramnagar to Moradabad, 45 miles, via Kashipur, of which 25 miles, more or less, are a kuteba fair-weather road, bridged. Bridge-of-boats on Ramganga north of Moradabad. From Ramnagar up there is a cart-road (Kosi river not bridged) to Ranikhet, 56 miles; and to the Hawalbagh plantation, where the Kosi river is being bridged, 19 miles.

Ayar Toli.—In Kattyur, consisting of about 2,546 acres. The area under tea was some years ago considerable. About 700 acres are cleared, and nearly 1,500 acres consist of jungle, of which part may be unculturable: a portion of the estate named Binculi, 919 acres, is held under a perpetual lease from the Naguath Temple, at an annual rent of Rs. 24. There were on the estate a house, factory, godown, and numerous out-offices, all slated; but all these are in bad repair. Height of house above sea-level, 5,200 feet, and the plantation ranges from that height to 4,400 feet. Upset price, Rs. 17,000.

Communications.—To Hawalbagh, 24 miles by bridle-road, thence as detailed under Hawalbagh.

These two estates will be put up to auction separately, at the upset prices named, and sold in fee simple to the highest bidder, free of all demands for land revenue, but subject to the rights already named in each case, and also to payment of customary cesses now in force, or that may be imposed hereafter.

Both estates have been surveyed, and maps may be seen at the District Office, Almora. Intending purchasers must satisfy themselves as to the present condition of the estates, and on all other matters involved in their sale. The purchasers must deposit 5 per cent. of the purchase-money at the time of sale, and the balance on or before the 1st of January, 1876, when possession will be given: failing payment in full, the deposit will be forfeited, and the estate re-sold.

By order of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces.

A. COLVIN,

Offg. Secy. to Govt., N. W. Provinces.

NOTIFICATION.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The 11th October 1875.

No. 2083 A.—The following Notification regarding the sale of the Government tea plantations at Ayar Toli and Hawalbagh in Kumaun, is published for general information in supersession of Notification No. 1707A., dated 21st August 1875. The portions of this Notification which are additions to or alterations of the former Notification are printed in italics:—

The following tea plantations in Kumaun, the property of Government, will be offered for sale by public auction at the Senior Assistant Commissioner's Office, Almora, on Wednesday, the 1st of December 1875, at noon:—

HAWALBAGH.

Forty-six miles from the plains by bridle-road, and six from Almora. Area about one hundred acres, after excluding the house known as Mr. Traill's, with its compound, which will not be sold: said house and ground are in an outlying corner of the estate, and are to be set apart for travellers. Separated from the plantation by the Kosi river (suspension bridge) is a pine forest of one hundred and two acres, belonging to the estate, but in which neighbouring villages have the right to graze their cattle. The garden having latterly been used as a nursery for fruit trees, the whole of the area is not under tea. There are on the estate two large slated houses (exclusive of Traill's house, which will not be sold), a slated factory, two slated godowns, a slated barrack for tea-makers, and numerous slated out-offices. The height of the houses above sea-level is 4,000 feet, and the lands are not much higher or lower. Upset price, Rs. 25,000.

Communications.—A good bridle-road, 8 to 10 feet wide and bridged, runs to (1) Haldwani, (2) Kaladungi (via Naini Tal), and (3) Ramnagar (via Khyrna). From Haldwani to Bareilly Railway Station 60 miles, over a pukka cart-road; from Kaladungi to Moradabad Railway Station, 48 miles, on partly pukka road; and from Ramnagar to Moradabad, 45 miles, via Kashipur, of which 25 miles more or less are a kutchra fair-weather road, bridged. Bridge-boats on Ramganga north of Moradabad. From Ramnagar up there is a cart-road (Kosi river not bridged) to Ranikhet, 56 miles; and to the Hawalbagh plantation, where the Kosi river is being bridged, 19 miles.

AYAR TOLI.

In Kattyur, consisting of about 1,627 acres. The area under tea was some years ago considerable. About 700 acres are cleared, and most of the remaining 927 acres consist of jungle, of which part may be unculturable. There were on the estate a house, factory, godown, and numerous out-offices, all slated; but all these are in bad repair. Height of house above sea-level 5,200 feet, and the plantation ranges from that height to 4,400 feet. Upset price, Rs. 17,000.

Communications.—To Hawalbagh, 24 miles by bridle-road, thence as detailed under Hawalbagh.

These two estates will be put up to auction separately at the upset prices named, and sold in fee-simple to the highest bidder, free of all demands for land revenue, but subject to the rights already named in each case, and also to payment of customary cesses now in force, or that may be imposed hereafter.

Both estates have been surveyed, and maps may be seen at the District Office, Almora. Intending purchasers must satisfy themselves as to the present condition of the estates, and on all other matters involved in their sale. The purchasers must deposit 5 per cent. of the purchase-money at the time of sale, and the balance on or before the 1st of January 1876, when possession will be given; failing payment in full the deposit will be forfeited, and the estates re-sold.

N. B.—No part of the Ayar Toli estate is held under a lease from the Nagnath Temple as stated in the former Notification No. 1707A., dated 21st August 1875.

By order of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor, North-Western Provinces.

NOTIFICATION.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The 11th October 1875.

No. 2083 A.—The following Notification regarding the sale of the Government tea plantations at Ayar Toli and Hawalbagh in Kumaun, is published for general information in supersession of Notification No. 1707 A., dated 21st August 1875. The portions of this Notification which are additions to or alterations of the former Notification are printed in italics:—

The following tea plantations in Kumaun, the property of Government, will be offered for sale by public auction at the Senior Assistant Commissioner's Office, Almora, on Wednesday, the 1st of December 1875, at noon:—

HAWALBAGH.

Forty-six miles from the plains by bridle-road, and six from Almora. Area about one hundred acres, after excluding the house known as Mr. Traill's, with its compound, which will not be sold: said house and ground are in an outlying corner of the estate, and are to be set apart for travellers. Separated from the plantation by the Kosi river (suspension bridge) is a pine forest of one hundred and two acres, belonging to the estate, but in which neighbouring villages have the right to graze their cattle. The garden having latterly been used as a nursery for fruit trees, the whole of the area is not under tea. There are on the estate two large slated houses (exclusive of Traill's house, which will not be sold), a slated factory, two slated godowns, a slated barrack for tea-makers, and numerous slated out-offices. The height of the houses above sea-level is 4,000 feet, and the lands are not much higher or lower. Upset price, Rs. 25,000.

Communications.—A good bridle-road, 8 to 10 feet wide and bridged, runs 1, 2, 3,—markets at the foot of the hills. to (1) Haldwani, (2) Kaladungi (via Naini Tal), and (3) Ramnagar (via Khyrna). From Haldwani to Bareilly Railway Station 60 miles, over a pukka cart-road; from Kaladungi to Moradabad Railway Station, 48 miles, on partly pukka road; and from Ramnagar to Moradabad, 45 miles, via Kashipur, of which 25 miles more or less are a kutchia fair-weather road, bridged. Bridge-boats on Ramganga north of Moradabad. From Ramnagar up there is a cart-road (Kosi river not bridged) to Ranikhet, 56 miles; and to the Hawalbagh plantation, where the Kosi river is bridged, 19 miles.

AYAR TOLI.

In Kattyur, consisting of about 1,627 acres. The area under tea was some years ago considerable. About 700 acres are cleared, and most of the remaining 927 acres consist of jungle, of which part may be unculturable. There were on the estate a house, factory, godown, and numerous out-offices, all slated; but all these are in bad repair. Height of house above sea-level 5,200 feet, and the plantation ranges from that height to 4,400 feet. Upset price, Rs. 17,000.

Communications.—To Hawalbagh, 24 miles by bridle-road, thence as detailed under Hawalbagh.

These two estates will be put up to auction separately at the upset prices named, and sold in fee-simple to the highest bidder, free of all demands for land revenue, but subject to the rights already named in each case, and also to payment of customary cesses now in force, or that may be imposed hereafter.

Both estates have been surveyed, and maps may be seen at the District Office, Almora. Intending purchasers must satisfy themselves as to the present condition of the estates, and on all other matters involved in their sale. The purchasers must deposit 5 per cent. of the purchase-money at the time of sale, and the balance on or before the 1st of January 1876, when possession will be given; failing payment in full the deposit will be forfeited, and the estates re-sold.

N. B.—No part of the Ayar Toli estate is held under a lease from the Nagnath Temple as stated in the former Notification No. 1707A., dated 21st August 1875.

By order of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor, North-Western Provinces.
